"In spring a young mans fancy turns daintily to thoughts of love" but, in summer all the little animals feel the urge of being busy. Little mice are going swimming in the old farmer's water trough other mice were surf riding on little goldfish at five cents a ride.

The old farmer and his bloodhound were out in search of rabbits. Jack & Jessie Rabbit were wise to the old mans tricks and they threw pepper on the trail. The farmer and his pup have to sneeze so hard that four barrels of apples fall off of the tree.

Theodore Cat was enjoying a rid on his elephant and picking little daisies on the edge of a cliff going close to the edge they both fall over and enjoy a long fall to the bottom, where they are safely caught by Percy Cat. Right near these parts a flock of cats and dogs are diving off of a building into a pool of water. Farmer Al decides to show his manly form and dive in also, just as he dives Oscar Elephant steps up and empties the pool, then squirts the water on Al when he comes out of the mud. This proves to Al: "We Never Miss The Water Till The Well Runs Dry"
